Salt Lake and Great Falls Will Open Series at Gooley Park Today.

BATTLE BETWEEN PITCHERS

Hummel and Eastman, Stars of the League, Will Oppose Each Other.

The battle for the top of the percentage column in the Union association standing will be fought today at Cooley park between Salt Lake and Great Falls. Great Falls now leads in the pennant cluse by a nose, with Salt Lake bang up second Victory today for Salt Lake means the top of the column. Victory for Great Falls means a tighter grip on first place. The series to be played here this week will give a good line on the relative strength of the various clubs. Although Great Falls leads the league its strength is still uncertain. It has just completed a double series with Helena, capturing nine out of twelve games and tieing another. Helena is conceded to be the weakest club in the league, so that it is possible that Great Falls is not as strong as it appears to be.

Salt Lake Looks Best.

Salt Lake Looks Best.

Salt Lake Looks Best.

Salt Lake fans will not be persuaded that Salt Lake has not the best club in the league and they will be disappointed if the locals do not take at least four or five of the seven games scheduled for the week with Great Falls. Sait Lake took four out of six from Missoula and six out of seven from Butte. They will be home three weeks more, and if they keep up this gait the Skyscrapers will have a nice lead on the other clubs when they start to make their trip abroad.

Beise took a slump in the Missoula series and is now next to the bottom. They will meet the idelena team this week, and the scrap will be to keep from being at the foot of the ladder. Helena has strengthened somewhat since its defeats by Great Falls and Helena fans predict that the tail-enders will now begin to climb.

predict that the tail-enders will now begin to climb.

From the showing of the two teams against Sait Lake, Butte and Missoula are evenly matched. Missoula probably has the best pitchers and does the better fielding, Butte has the heavier hitters. The series at Missoula should prove especially interesting.

The Great Falls team arrived in Sait Lake yesterday afternoon and has been quartered at the Mosum. George Reed, the old Southern league magnate, who owns and manages the Great Falls team, is elated over his virtories over Helena and the position at the top of the column that his team has attained. He declares that he has the permant already clinched and has thought of announcing pennant-raising day at his Great Falls park. He is gracious enough to concete the fact that Sait Lake is the contender in the permant race and that he will be satisfied with a bare majority of the games of this week's series.

Hummel Will Pitch.

Hummel Will Pitch.

Hummel Will Pitch.

Two invincibles will oppose each other in today's game. Hummel, who will pitch for Salt Lake, has not yet tasted defeat. Blankenship wants to be sure of his first game, so he is putting in his star pitcher to take today's game or die trying. Eastman, who will be in the box for Great Falls, like Hummel, has known no defeat this year. He has both "stuff" and "smoke." His curves are puzzling and his speed is marvelous. Everything pertends a pitchers' battle today.

Little Perkins, Salt Lake's game catcher, will be behind the but in today's game despite his injury Sunday. Manager Blankenship will go back to first base. VERNON BOXING CONTESTS ARE NOT PRIZE FIGHTS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 8.—Boxing bouts as staged at the Vernon arena here are not prize fights within the meaning of the law prohibiting such events, according to Judge Willis in the superior court, who dismissed today charges sagainst those concerned in the Wolgast-Memsic contest here on March 17. Judge Willis held that the stalute was unequivocal, and that T. J. McCarey, who promoted the fight, had taken all precautions demanded by the law.

As a result of the decision it is certain that boxing here will be continued as heretofore, unless a new law be enacted by the legislature.

Each Team Will Be Improved by Addition of Recruits During the Week.

MARGETTS LOSES ANNIS. WHO RETURNS TO TACOMA

Salt Lake May Get Pitcher Mc-Creary and Two Star Infielders.

Owners and managers of Utah State League teams are spending considerable time this week strengthening up their teams and getting them in shape for the games next Saturday and Sunday. Exhibition games will be played during the week and daily practises will be held. Bert Margetts, whose Salt Lake team has been considered crippled by the loss of several of his best men to organized baseball leagues, is not discouraged by this depletion in the ranks of his players and is preparing to import others to take their places.

Since starting his team in Salt Lake he has lost Walsh and Pendicton, infielders, to the Salt Lake club in the Union association. Harmon, outfleider, to the Missoula team in the same league, and now Annis, his crack pitcher, goes back to the Tacoma club of the Northwestern league.

Annis Goes to Tacoma.

Annis Goes to Tacoma.

Annis came to Salt Lake from the Tacoma club in the Northwestern league. The portwheeler jumped, claiming that Tacoma owed him twenty-three days salary. The Tacoma club, it is understood, has agreed to make up this salary and offers Annis a bonus of $100 if he will return and Annis, it was reported Sunday, would return to the northwest, leaving today or tomorrow.

Lehr, the Colorado boy catching for the Salt Lake team, is likely to feel the hand of organized baseball for failing to live up to a reported agreement to join the Missoula Union league team. After accepting "Scrappy" Bill Joyce's terms to catch for him, Lehr, it is understood, will refuse to report to Missoula and in Union league circles it was said Sunday night that five years' suspension for Lehr will follow.

In place of Annis, Margetts is negotiating for McCreary, who finished the

ATHLETES IN COMPETITION

LONDON, May 8.—An international varsity meeting in which the combined athletic teams of Yale and Harvard will line up against those of Oxford and Cambridge will be held on the Queen's club grounds in July, the American challenge having been definitely accepted by the British universities. July 8 has been suggested as the date of the meeting but this may be changed for a date a little earlier or later in order that it may not clash with other events of the month.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass, May 8.—While no official acceptance of the American universities challenge of Oxford and Cambridge to an international athletic contest has been received here, the news from London is accepted by the Harvard athletic authorities as authentic.

Ogden, already at the top, is still strengthening its already strong team. Financially Ogden is the best cared for in the league, and "Dad" Gimlin is going to spend a lot of money trying to take the pennant to Ogden. Gimlin is keeping quiet about his plans, but it is rumored that he is importing a catcher, two infielders and an outfielder, who will be here during the week. NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 8.—The news that Oxford and Cambridge had accepted the invitation jointly sent by Harvard and Yale for an international athletic meet came as a surprise at Yale, where the athletic authorities had almost jost sight of the negotiations.

The Iowa farmer insisted that he be given $20,000, win or lose, $1000 for training expenses and $20 per cent of the profits. The Russian lion will take a percentage of the gate receipts.

However, they played good ball, and the loss of these games was rather due to hard luck than poor playing. The Oxies have been somewhat handicapped by the loss of Lane and McAdoo, although both Kyle and Bost are good players. McAdoo, the star negro first basemen, has been eagain secured for the Oxies. He left French Link, Ind., for Salt Lake Saturday. He will stop a day or two in Kansas City, but will be here for Saturday's game. Manager Black is now looking for at third pitcher. His roster will then he complete.
